Restorative Policing
Concepts, theory and practice

Kerry Clamp, University of Nottingham, UK and Craig Paterson, Sheffield Hallam University, UK

Series: Routledge Frontiers of Criminal Justice

In the UK and elsewhere, restorative justice and policing are core components of a range of university programmes; however, currently no such text exists on the intersection of these two areas of study. This book draws together these diverse theoretical perspectives to provide an innovative, knowledge-rich text that is essential reading for all those engaged with the evolution and practice of restorative policing.

This pathbreaking book will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses on restorative justice, policing and crime control, as well as professionals interested in the implementation of restorative practices in the police force.
